PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

Brief Session of the Senate and Very Light Business.
Mr. Stevens of Pennsylvania Offers a "Bill to Enable States Lately in Rebellion to Regain Their Privileges in the Union."
THE TAX BILL PASSED—YEAS 111, NAYS 11.

WASHINGTON, Monday, May 28, 1866.
SENATE.
These who clamor for an early adjournment of Congress should remember that five of the most important measures of the session yet remain to be finished: The Tax bill, the Reconstruction bill, the Appropriation bill, the Freedmen's Bureau bill, and the Equalization of Bounties bill. Four of these live bills from the late war, and are therefore in addition to the ordinary legislation; besides these there is a large amount of unfinished business of various kinds in committee or partly passed.

THE SENATORIAL CAUCUS.
The caucus of the Republican Senators convened again this morning, and after the day's session held another meeting this afternoon; little is positively known of the details of their deliberations, but two important facts have transpired, to the effect that whatever is determined upon will receive the united support of all the Republican members, and that the general outlines of what is believed will prove an acceptable substitute for the submitted report of the Reconstruction Committee have been determined upon.

PASSAGE OF THE TAX BILL.
There is a feeling of relief in Congressional quarters, to-night, consequent upon the passage through the House of the new tax bill; it is a ponderous document comprising some 5,000 lines, which have been prepared and scanned with unusual care; many of its provisions have been arranged with special reference to modifications of our tariff laws; so that foreign competition may not operate to our disadvantage in case where the American producer is called upon to pay onerous taxes. The failure of Gen. Farnsworth's amendment to prevent any appointments or removals under this act except by and with the consent of the Senate, does not end the matter, as many members deem such an enactment entirely proper and desirable, and will support an independent bill for that purpose. It is understood to have been with this expectation that the amendment of Mr. Farnsworth, which was essentially that of Mr. Stevens, was voted down to-day.

WHAT A DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMAN COULDN'T SEE.
General Demmon and solicited the appointment of a constituent of similar faith to a Postmastership in his District. "What is he?" blantly asked Gov. Demmon. "Why, he is a Union man, and supports President Johnson's policy," replied the M. C. "But what was he, for whom did he vote in the last Presidential election?" Further interrogated the postal chief, "He voted for McClellan," was the frank and ready reply. "We are not appointing any men postmasters who voted for McClellan," quoth Gov. Demmon, to the evident disgust of the expectant Congressman, who retired in a bewildered state of mind, growing out of his effort to see the precise benefit to his party of its vigorous support of the President's policy.

PUBLIC LANDS.
The General Land Office is notified that at Roseburg, Oregon, lands were issued in March for 6,354 acres of old settlement lands; cash sales of $4,306; and at Travers City, Mich., 9,018 acres were taken up in April for actual homestead settlements, and the Governor of that State has received title for 7,071 acres of swamp land under the act of Congress Sept. 28, 1850.

COLONIZATION.
An enterprise is being inaugurated by an ex-officer of the Freedmen's Bureau to settle a colony of Whites and Blacks in Nevada, Florida. A large number are now awaiting transportation.

A MATTER OF CHOICE.
Naval Officer Lynch of Charleston having declined the little formality of taking the iron-clad oath, Secretary McCulloch omits to sign his pay warrants.

PARDON WANTED.
Col. White, of Grenville fame, having been elected Sheriff of Loudon County, Va., reached town to-day, in company with his military co-laborer Mosby seeking a pardon.

AMOS KENDALL.
On the 25th of June the venerable Amos Kendall leaves this country for a pleasure tour of a year in Europe. Thirty-two years ago, as Postmaster-General of Andrew Jackson's Cabinet, Mr. Kendall permitted Southern Postmasters to rifle the mails and burn the anti-slavery mail contained therein; in 1865 the same Amos Kendall gave $54,000 to found the most anti-slavery Baptist Church in Washington.

COL. PAULDING'S COURT-MARTIAL.
The Secretary of War has directed the following detail for court-martial of Col. Paulding, who lost the $600,000 of money in the Merchant's National Bank: Major-Gen. Anger, Brig-Gen. Devitt, Brig-Gen. Dayton, Brig-Gen. Pyke, Col. Selles, Col. Dodge, Major Foley, and Capt. Haviland, 11th Regt. U. S. A., Judge-Advocate. The Court meets on Wednesday.

MRS. COBB.
Is still among the regular callers at the White House.

THE COLORADO QUESTION.
An effort is being made to resuscitate the Colorado question, with a hope of its passage over the President's veto. There is little prospect of its success.

INTERNAL REVENUE.
The receipts from Internal Revenue to-day were $96,814.67.

PAID OFF.
Robert B. Price of Galveston, Texas, was pardoned by the President to-day, under the 10th and 13th exceptions, recommended by Gen. P. B. Blair and the Hon. J. S. Rollins. John M. Boyd, Knox County, Tenn., and George Gust of Virginia, were also pardoned to-day.

TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
WASHINGTON, Monday, May 28, 1866.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.
The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has received a communication from the Secretary of the Interior, dated April 12, in which information is given of an outbreak between some whites and a party of Hualapais, which originated on the 9th ult. at a place called "The Wilsons," on the road from Fort Maudslayi to Prescott. A party of five white men, who were on a prospecting tour, had made their camp there, and while four of them were absent, the Indians killed the other, and burned the camp. As soon as this became known at Hardyville, a settlement seven miles above Fort Maudslayi, a detachment of soldiers immediately went out and killed nine of the Indians, among them the chief of the Hualapais, and several women and children. Superintendent Lehigh thinks it by no means improbable that an alliance will be formed between the Hualapais and Chinchenos against the whites; and he says that such a move to be the case the condition of the white settlers on the river will be very precarious, owing to the insufficiency of troops stationed at that portion of the Territory. He also remarks that the only safety for life and property on the river is the establishment of the Indians on reservations, to accomplish which the presence of troops will be absolutely necessary.

DOCUMENTS SENT IN.
A mass of documents was sent to the House to-day in relation to the Freedmen's affairs, including a letter from Assistant Commissioner Scott, dated at Charleston, S. C., May 21, in which he reports to Major-Gen. Howard that he has just returned from accompanying General Smedley and his staff in their inspection of the Sea Islands. Although a careful investigation was made, no plan, he remarks, could be found in his management of the Sea Islands question, or any other affairs of the Bureau in South Carolina. It gives him much pleasure to state that the planter came forward and upheld his policy throughout, and were panic-stricken at the very idea of the removal of the Bureau. The Assistant Commissioner for North Carolina says the number of destitute freedmen and it is hoped that the number will be reduced, dependent upon the aid of another quarter the necessity for the gratuitous issue of rations and clothing will have ceased entirely. The demand for labor continues unabated and is far greater than the supply. Any plan for the Southern States hereafter to be made, he says, must be managed parties in North Carolina to return with them. The inquiry is no longer heard, "What can be done with the negroes?" but the question is often asked, "Where can laborers be found?"

THE POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT has received a copy of the ratification by the Government of Brazil of the conditional contract made with the United States and Brazil Mail Steamship Company for carrying the mails between the two countries, which appears to be in a substantial conformity with the act of Congress of May, 1864.

MEDICAL STATISTICS.
The Secretary of War, in compliance with a resolution of the Senate calling for a comprehensive report of the Surgeon-General during the war, states that the number of the Surgeon-General that records of many of the hospitals have not been received, and that the tabulation of those at hand is not complete, so that any comparison of the medical statistics of the war at this time must necessarily be based upon partial data, and hence be trustworthy and valuable.

GEN. SICKLES.
The commission of Gen. Sickles as Minister to the Hague, was signed on Saturday. He has not yet signified his acceptance or declination of the appointment.

PERSONAL.
Gen. Warren, Minister to Guatemala, Mr. Rosewell, Minister to Honduras, and Col. Campbell, Minister to the Republic of Mexico, are all waiting for their preparatory instructions from the Secretary of State.

ASSISTANT-SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.
The President has nominated to the Senate William Faxon, now Chief Clerk of the Navy Department, to be Assistant-Secretary of the Navy, in place of Capt. Faxon, resigned, an appointment which gives general satisfaction, not only on account of his private worth, but his executive ability. Capt. Faxon has been nominated as the additional Assistant-Secretary of the Navy for the period of six months, under the late recently passed.
